Teacher of Design and Technology

Required for September 2019

Salary: MPR/UPR (£23,720 - £39,406)

We are looking for a dynamic and highly motivated teacher of Design Technology who is committed to academic excellence and high classroom standards.

The successful candidate will join a team of committed and highly professional teachers in a supportive school which has an extremely successful academic record. He/she will be required to teach across the ability range at Key Stage 3-4.

The ideal candidate will:

- be a well-qualified practitioner with a passion for Design Technology
- be a good communicator with excellent interpersonal skills
- be a self-motivated and enthusiastic team-player
- have a proven track record of securing successful student outcomes.

If you are passionate about the students with whom you work, have high expectations with regards to standards and behaviour and a commitment to ensuring that every student achieves their full potential, we look forward to your application.

Deadline:

Friday 26 April 2019, 12pm

Interviews will take place the week commencing 29 April 2019.

All visits to the school are warmly welcomed. Please contact the school office on 0191 527 0757.

How to apply:

Application forms should be returned to leah.robson@nelt.co.uk or by post to Leah Robson, Easington Academy, Stockton Road, Easington, SR8 3AY.

Job description

Responsible to

Head of Department

Job purpose

You will be required to carry out the duties of a school teacher as set out in the current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document.

The key duties of this post will generally include:

- To promote the agreed aims and objectives of the school.
- To effectively manage the learning process of students.
- To plan and deliver lessons effectively and to maintain appropriate records of teaching.
- To mark and assess the work of students in accordance with school and departmental policies and to maintain appropriate records of student attainment and progress.
- To set and mark homework in accordance with school policy.
- To manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment, in accordance with the school's behaviour policy.
- To contribute to the appearance and ethos of the school through the maintenance of a pleasant learning environment within the classroom and departmental areas.
- To actively celebrate the achievement of students through the use of school systems to praise and reward.
- To be a Form Tutor for an assigned group of students and to carry out related duties.
- To participate in general supervisory duties in accordance with published duty rotas.
- To participate in required meetings with colleagues and parents/carers
- To liaise with colleagues in other departments as appropriate.
- To participate in professional development and Performance Management reviews in line with school policy.
- To attend assemblies as required.
- Make a positive contribution to the wider community and ethos of the school.
- To promote and safeguard the welfare of students.
- To follow procedures for staff as set out in the Staff Handbook and school policies.

The above list of duties is extensive but not exhaustive and may not identify each individual task which may reasonably be requested of the post holder. Employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from a manager to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description.

This job description is current at the date shown, but, in consultation with you, may be changed by the Executive Headteacher to reflect or anticipate changes in the job commensurate with the grade and job title.
